NEW YORK—On Sunday, November 13, 2011 at 3:00 p.m., MJHS Foundation will revisit one of its most cherished November traditions: This year’s outing gives supporters a hilarious and unforgettable afternoon of theater with Relatively Speaking, featuring three one-act plays by three legendary writers: Ethan Coen, Elaine May and Woody Allen.

An exclusive post-show reception will be held at the Aspen Social Club for Patron ticket holders and Sponsors. A special raffle will also be held for a luxury vacation to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico—the prize is a seaside luxury condo and airfare for two. Proceeds will help MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care continue to provide culturally sensitive services to New Yorkers in need.

Current sponsors include: Allen Health Care Services (Event Level); First Response Ambulance, Inc., Infusion Options, Inc., The Patricia Quick and The Quick Foundation, as well as Bestcare, Inc. (Platinum Level); Access Nursing Services and Community Home Care Referral Service, Inc., and Total Healthcare Staffing (Gold Level).

To attend or make a donation, call (718) 630-2664 or visit www.mjhsfoundation.org. Pre-purchased tickets will be at the theater box office on the day of the performance.

About MJHS Foundation

The philanthropic spirit of The Four Brooklyn Ladies led to the formation of MJHS Foundation, which has been instrumental in raising the funds for charitable health care as well as innovative services and programs for more than 100 years. The extraordinary efforts of MJHS would not be made possible without generous donations to MJHS Foundation. To learn more, visit www.mjhsfoundation.org.

About the MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care

MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care provides comprehensive culturally-sensitive care and effective pain management to patients, as well as their families—whether in homes, hospitals, nursing homes or hospice residences. One of the largest programs in the region, we offer state-of-the-art care for adults and children. For more information, call (212) 649-5555 or visit hospicenyc.org.

About MJHS

MJHS is a charitable not-for-profit organization with more than a century of providing quality, compassionate and innovative health services to New Yorkers of all ages, ethnic, religious and economic backgrounds. MJHS is uniquely positioned to provide the right level of care when and where it is most needed—so the majority of its care recipients are able to continue living at home and we can help reduce hospital readmissions. The MJHS robust portfolio includes: home care, hospice, palliative care, centers for rehabilitation and nursing care, health plans, independent living and adult day health care.
