Super Bowl-winning coach Dick Vermeil has again teamed up with MJHS Foundation to serve as Honorary Chair of its 13th Annual Golf Classic on Monday, June 20, 2011 at Old Westbury Golf and Country Club. The beloved coach will also host an afternoon wine tasting featuring Vermeil Cabernet Sauvignon and his other fine wines. Later in the day, MJHS Foundation Immediate Past President Isaac Assael will be honored for the more than 35 years he has spent building a true culture of philanthropy at MJHS.

Record attendance is expected at this year's fun-filled "Drive for the Future." All proceeds go to MJHS Foundation's charitable fund, supporting health care for patients, residents and families served by MJHS. Last year's golf classic raised nearly $814,500, up from nearly $419,200 in 2009.

The range of activities at the 13th Annual "Drive for the Future" include: four-person captain and crew scramble competitions; hole-in-one prizes; and swimming; a Texas Hold 'Em tournament; open bar; and wine tasting (kosher options will be available). Major sponsors include: Bestcare, Inc. (Ace level); Northwestern Mutual, TD Bank, Allen Health Care Services and Special Touch Home Care (Eagle level) and Chem Rx Pharmacy Services (Birdie level). To attend or make a donation, call (718) 759-4335 or e-mail events@mjhs.org.
