

October 6, 2011

MJHS Hospice Seeks Bronx, Riverdale Volunteers

Help needed with patient visits and activities, administrative duties, bereavement support

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Audrey Waters, (718) 759-4677; awaters@mjhs.org

MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care invites Bronx and Riverdale residents to attend volunteer training sessions on Tuesday, October 25, 2011 and Sunday, October 30, 2011. During the free orientation, participants will learn about hospice, palliative care and choose where they would like to help one of the area's most compassionate hospice and palliative care programs.

SESSION SCHEDULE: October 25 and 30, 2011 from 9:00 a.m-5:00 p.m

Advanced registration is required. To complete an application or for more information, visit hospicenyc.org or contact the MJHS Hospice Volunteer Department at (212) 420-2562 or hospvol@mjhs.org.

About the MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care

MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care provides comprehensive culturally-sensitive care and effective pain management to patients, as well as their families, throughout the Greater New York area—whether in homes, hospitals, nursing homes or hospice residences. The hospice program has remained at the forefront with innovative inpatient and home-based palliative care services, as well as state-of-the-art pediatric hospice care. For more information, call 1-800-HOSPICE.

About MJHS

MJHS is a charitable not-for-profit organization with more than a century of providing quality, compassionate and innovative health services to New Yorkers of all ages, ethnic, religious and economic backgrounds. MJHS is uniquely positioned to provide the right level of care when and where it is most needed—so the majority of its care recipients are able to continue living at home and we can help reduce hospital readmissions. For more information, visit www.mjhs.org or call 1-855-692-5058.

###