MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care Seeks More Volunteers

Help needed with visits, administrative duties, bereavement support, community outreach

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Audrey Waters, (718) 759-4677; awaters@mjhs.org

MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care invites Nassau County residents to give the gift of time by attending volunteer training sessions in Oceanside on Mondays and Wednesdays. During the mandatory orientation, Nassau locals will learn about hospice, palliative care and get to choose where they would like to help one of the county's most compassionate hospice and palliative care programs.

SESSION SCHEDULE: August 8, 15, 17, 24, 29 and 31 from 6:00 p.m-9:00 p.m

PLACE: MJHS
447 Merrick Road
Oceanside, NY 11572

To complete an application or for more information contact Vanessa Joseph, Volunteer Coordinator, at (718) 491-7139 or vjoseph@mjhs.org.

About the MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care

MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care provides comprehensive culturally-sensitive care and effective pain management to patients, as well as their families, throughout the Greater New York area—whether in homes, hospitals, nursing homes or hospice residences. The hospice program has remained at the forefront with innovative inpatient and home-based palliative care services, as well as state-of-the-art pediatric hospice care.
